If your father is anything like mine, he doesn't need anything — especially not another World's Best Dad tee to wear around the garage. But every man can afford to have his tools updated once a year. So, whether it's a cutting-edge driver to enhance his "already perfect" swing, a pair of classic aviators with some 21st-century tech or just a few cool gadgets that will reinvigorate his inner explorer, here are a few ideas that will put a more useful spin on that age-old T-shirt sentiment.
