

TriEdge.net

October 6, 2011

Special Edition Verve 10 to Benefit Breast Cancer Fund

Featuring: BCF Verve 10

URL: <http://tinyurl.com/3zthzv3>

Osprey Packs announced its newest pack which supports the Breast Cancer Fund. The special, limited-edition Verve 10 is available at selected U.S. retailers and at the company's website. (www.ospreypacks.com)

Osprey will donate $4 of the purchase price to the Breast Cancer Fund. A donation of $5,000 is guaranteed by Osprey to the non-profit.

Osprey Packs has been supporting the Breast Cancer Fund since 2005 as a corporate sponsor of Climb Against the Odds, an event that raises over $5 million. The 2011 event will take place at Mount Shasta in June.

The special-edition Verve 10 is amethyst with the Breast Cancer Fund prayer flags across the pack's front pocket. The multi-purpose daypack is suited for biking, hiking and running.

The Verve's 10's design stabilizes the hydration bladder limiting its movement in the pack. Other features include an external helmet clip, sternum strap with magnetic bite-valve attachment, ventilated back panel, harness pocket for a personal electronics device and hip belt. (MSRP $84)

In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, we're giving away this sweet Special Edition Verve 10 from Osprey! To win, comment below this article about a woman in your life that has left a lasting impression. The winner will be announced Friday (10/07), 3pm. Remember to return to the TriEdge facebook page and comment that the task is done so we can contact you. Good luck!

